

This is something that gives too much comfort to be overlooked. It is an agreeably scented lotion that will protect the hands and face from attack by mosquito and which is also an antidote for the bite if you neglect to use it in time.

DON'T BE FOOL FOR "SKEETERS."

This will keep them at a distance. Aside from the discomfort of mosquito bites there is also danger in them. They are known to be distributors of malaria and other diseases and they occasionally cause blood poisoning. Panama Mosquito Lotion is an agreeable antiseptic preparation that keeps mosquitos at their distance.

IN LINE OF BATTLE

C. N. HASKELL ASKS FRANTZ AND SHEETS BOTH TO MEET HIM.

Declaring that if Governor Frantz has a particle of courage or manhood in his make-up he will give him an opportunity to meet him face to face and refute the base lies which Frantz and his paid allies have been spreading broadcast over the state, C. N. Haskell has invited Governor Frantz to be present at Guthrie at 1 o'clock next Saturday and have with him ohn M. Sheets, the Ohio attorney who has come here to attack Haskell's personal record, offering to give the meach an hour of his time and taking but an hour and a half in which to reply to them.

Mr. Haskell's challenge in full is as follows:

"Hon. Frank Frantz,
"Guthrie, Okla., etao mh mh mh mh
Guthrie, Okla.,

"Sir: After three weeks of the most vicious and filthy mud slinging by your party and hiredallies, which is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end, I, at Shawnee, made six charges against you which you have so far wholly failed to deny. The only defense made by your people is the whining claim that Haskell is actually slinging mud at you. They seem to have forgotten the villianous conduct of your party.

"Now, you have added to your list of hirelings, one John M. Sheets, of Ohio, who comes a thousand miles. "You still persist in avoiding me and making charges against me in my absence and where I have no opportunity to refute your charges or to ask you to explain your own improper personal and official conduct.

"Next Saturday at 1 o'clock I speak in your home city of Guthrie, and there shall take up all the charges you and your hirelings have made against me and show their utter falsity. If you have a particle of courage or manhood about you, you will accept the invitation which I here-with give you; that you and Sheets both be present; Sheets can occupy the first hour. I will follow with an hour and a half and you can close with an hour. Let the people judge between us. Remember, this is to be in your own city. I will be there. "C. N. HASKELL."
